Icicle Pansies

If you've seen the national ads, our answer to your question is "yes" we carry Icicle Pansies. And even though we do carry this nationally advertised brand, the truth is that these pansies are no different than the winter pansies we've offered for fall planting for over 15 years! So, although it's good that the Icicle Pansy folks are getting the word out about winter pansies, rest assured that all the pansies sold this fall at Johnson's are winter-hardy and will provide you with blooms in the fall, winter and spring! Our winter pansies are from the good folks at Welby Gardens in Colorado. Who should know more about winter gardening?
